

Marion Farouk-Sluglett Award Paper Competition Submission Cover

$100 award for undergraduate & graduate categories

Deadline March 15th

Name: _____ uNID: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Degree/Program: _____

Category: Undergraduate _____ Graduate _____

Paper Title: _____

Eligibility

Open to all University of Utah undergraduate and graduate students. Must be enrolled at the time of submission.

Paper & Submission Requirements

- Paper must be on a Middle East topic written in English.
- No specific length requirement. Papers are generally 8-20 pages for undergraduates and 20-40 for graduates (double-spaced).
- You are encouraged to make use of your professor's critique of your paper and rewrite it if necessary before submitting it.
- Edit your paper carefully and present as polished and professional a paper as possible.
- Submit your paper and this submission cover in Word or PDF format as two separate email attachments to:
International & Area Studies
Subject Line: MFS Paper Competition Submission
international-area-studies@utah.edu
- No name or identifying information should appear on the paper itself.

About the Award

The Marion Farouk-Sluglett Memorial Award was established in 1997 in honor of Dr. Marion Farouk-Sluglett, an internationally-recognized scholar of the modern Middle East and Iraqi politics who taught at the University of Utah from September 1994 until her untimely death in February 1996.